

ASSEMBLY OF FIRST NATIONS

2018 RESOLUTIONS UPDATE REPORT FOR 2019 ANNUAL GENERAL ASSEMBLY (AGA)

JULY 2019

01/2018 First Nations Led Process to Develop New Federal Safe Drinking Water Legislation

Mover: Chief Dan George, Burns Lake Indian Band/Ts'il Kaz Koh, BC

Seconded: Chief Linda Debassige, M'Chigeeng First Nation, ON

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to immediately communicate to the federal government that, in keeping with the Government's commitments to reconciliation with First Nations, a joint legislative co-development process and mandate will proceed in full partnership with First Nations, including the development of a Joint Working Group on Safe Drinking Water for First Nations.
 2. Direct the AFN to immediately appoint a Chief's Committee on First Nations Safe Drinking Water Legislation that will advise and support the development of a Terms of Reference for the creation of the Joint Working Group on Safe Drinking Water for First Nations.
 3. Direct the AFN to produce a draft framework for safe drinking water legislation for First Nations, aligned with the phased approach recommended in the concept paper, for consideration at the AFN Annual General Assembly in July 2018.
 4. Direct the AFN and the Chief's Committee on First Nations Safe Drinking Water Legislation to develop a draft framework for the creation of the First Nations Water Commission.
 5. Direct the AFN to immediately develop and convey a funding proposal to the federal government that will ensure that the Chief's Committee on First Nations Safe Drinking Water Legislation and the Joint Working Group on Safe Drinking Water for First Nations have the resources required to participate in this joint legislative co-development process in full partnership with First Nations and the federal government.
 6. Direct the AFN to ensure the draft framework for safe drinking water legislation for First Nations affirms First Nations inherent water laws, standards, guidelines and processes.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN Housing, Infrastructure and Emergency Management Services Sector prepared the First Nations Safe Drinking Water Preliminary Concepts and shared it with the Chiefs-in-Assembly at the 2018 Annual General Assembly. It was endorsed via Resolution 26/2018, Support for a First Nations Safe Drinking Water Preliminary Concepts, as a foundational document to assist with national engagement on the forthcoming repeal and replacement of the Safe Drinking Water for First Nations Act.

- Resolution 26/2018, also further refined the co-development process initiated with Resolution 88/2017, First Nations Led Engagement Process for Safe Drinking Water Legislation and Resolution 01/2018, First Nations Led Process to Develop New Federal Drinking Water Legislation and directed the AFN to proceed with National Engagement with First Nations to develop the First Nations Safe Drinking Water Legislation Draft Framework.
- The National Engagement process for the Safe Drinking Water for First Nations Co-Developed Legislation Project began in April 2019 to ensure that the needs and aspirations of all First Nations are properly understood and incorporated into the new co-developed safe drinking water legislation.
- The feedback and information received from First Nations will inform the draft framework process for repeal and replacement of the Safe Drinking Water for First Nations Act, which will be co-developed through a Joint Working Group (First Nations and Indigenous Services Canada).
- A Refined Preliminary Concepts document is being drafted based upon feedback gathered from the National Engagement process and will be presented to the Chiefs-in-Assembly at the 2019 AGA.

05/2018 First Nations Oceans Working Group and the Oceans Act and Marine Protected Areas

Mover: Chief Dalton Silver, Sumas First Nation, BC

Seconder: Chief Scott McLeod, Nipissing First Nation, ON

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) National Fisheries Committee to oversee the work of the First Nations Oceans Working Group and address the partnership between First Nations and the Government of Canada in relation to the development of the Marine Protected Areas (MPA) network.
 2. Direct the AFN to call on the Department of Fisheries and Oceans to identify how they plan to implement an engagement strategy that is consistent with other tools and strategies with First Nations concerning the regulation and policy development as a result of changes to the Oceans Act, including the MPA network.
 3. Mandate the AFN National Fisheries Committee and the First Nations Oceans Working Group to inform the Canadian Council of Fisheries and Aquaculture Ministers (CCFAM), specifically the Oceans Task Group, of the issues related to the changes to Bill C-55, the Canada Petroleum Resources Act, and related regulations and policies that First Nations must be fully engaged in and co-develop where the rights of First Nations may be impacted or infringed upon. In particular, Canada's legislation must recognize First Nations' inherent and everlasting responsibilities to their traditional territories.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN Fisheries sector facilitated two meetings of the First Nations Oceans Working Group in 2019. The group met with government officials from Fisheries and Oceans Canada (DFO), Parks Canada Agency, and Transport Canada to address engagement and potential partnerships between First Nations and the Government of Canada in relation to the development of Marine Protected Areas (MPA) network and other initiatives due to changes to the Oceans Act. Discussions are ongoing.
- National Fisheries Committee member for BC, Chief Dalton Silver presented on behalf of the National Fisheries Committee to the Senate Standing Committee on Fisheries and Oceans on February 21, 2019 on Bill C-55, An Act to Amend the Oceans Act and Canada Petroleum Resources Act. The AFN's submission focused on the protection of First Nations rights and jurisdiction, Indigenous Protected and Conserved Marine Areas, and the designation, monitoring, and surveillance of Interim Marine Protected Areas. The Oceans Act and Canada Petroleum Resources Act were successfully amended and received royal assent on May 27, 2019.

- Miawpukek First Nation Chief Misel Joe presented to the Canadian Council of Fisheries and Aquaculture Ministers (CCFAM) in December 2018 in St. John’s, NL on the need to include First Nations in the work and decision-making of this Federal/Provincial/Territorial entity, including the Oceans Task Group. There was a general indication that the AFN will be invited to the next CCFAM meeting scheduled for the summer of 2019.

06/2018 Engaging First Nations on Marine Vessels and Salvage Operations

Mover: Chief Dalton Silver, Sumas First Nation, BC

Seconded: Chief Scott McLeod, Nipissing First Nation, ON

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Call on the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to continue to advocate that any legislative, policy, and program reforms related to Bill C-64, An Act respecting wrecks, abandoned, dilapidated or hazardous vessels and salvage operations, must recognize First Nations' inherent and everlasting responsibilities to their traditional territories.
 2. Direct the AFN to call on the federal government to provide First Nations with long-term capacity funding that goes beyond cursory Indigenous participant funding and recognize the joint nature of the responsibilities that the federal government shares with First Nations in protecting all coasts in Canada and First Nations fisheries.
 3. Direct the AFN to call on the federal government to recognize and respect First Nations' jurisdiction over their traditional marine areas and to engage them as equal partners in all future endeavors in this marine coast protection.
 4. Direct the AFN to work with Transport Canada and the Department of Fisheries, Oceans, and the Canadian Coast Guard, in securing core and capacity funding for First Nations and regional level work associated with the Oceans Protection Plan as it relates to First Nations.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN had bilateral meetings with Transport Canada (TC) to gather information on the TC plan to fund regional First Nation groups and communities related to the Oceans Protection Plan which includes the Abandoned Boats Programs.
 - On February 12, 2018, Regional Chief Teegee addressed the Standing Committee on Transport, Infrastructure and Communities (TRAN) sought the advice of a panel consisting of Stz'uminus (Chemainus) First Nation, the Atlantic Policy Congress of First Nations Chiefs. Mover: Bonnie Leonard, Proxy, Skeetchestn Indian Band, BC

Seconder: Chief Byron Louis, Okanagan Indian Band, BC

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Call upon the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to advocate that Bill C-69 be amended to include, among other things:
 - a. protections of First Nations inherent and constitutionally protected rights;
 - b. enabling joint decision-making with First Nations governing authority within the Act;
 - c. reducing excessive Ministerial discretion by increasing transparency and stronger requirements to protect s.35 rights;
 - d. strengthening the protection of Indigenous knowledge systems and ecosystems, which are the repositories of ecological knowledge and required for the transference of knowledge to future generations; and
 - e. including direct reference to Canada's commitments to the United Nations Agenda 2030 Sustainable Development Goals, the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and the Convention on Biological Diversity.
 2. Reaffirm their position that the current federal legislative process must not be construed as meaningful "consultation", does not meet the standard of free, prior and informed consent, and that additional time must be afforded to consult directly with rights holders in a manner that is respectful of their unique protocols, and processes.
 3. Direct the AFN to continue supporting and coordinating, where possible, the interventions and participation of First Nations, regional organizations, and provincial/territorial organizations in the co-development process, including creating regional-specific processes to address regions with specific concerns including support provisions as part of a nation-to-nation relationship.
 4. Call on all responsible federal Ministers to provide adequate funding directly to individual First Nations for their full and effective participation in the regulatory and policy development of Bill C-6.
 5. Call on the AFN to continue conducting regional information-sessions to support First Nations, regional organizations, and provincial/territorial organizations in the process.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN Environment Sector, in collaboration with the Advisory Committee on Climate Action and the Environment (ACE) and Olthius Kleer Townshend LLP, provided submission to the Standing Committee on Environment and Sustainable Development (ENVI) on Bill C-69 on April 4, 2019.
- Dialogue with the ACE to explore ongoing engagement and participation in the co-development and co-drafting of policies, regulations, and guidelines will continue subject to later resolutions, now that C-69 has achieved royal assent

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Declare that the Assembly of First Nations (AFN), as an advocacy body, and any regional organizations cannot negotiate any binding changes to Canada's federal laws, policies and operational practices as part of the Recognition and Implementation of Indigenous Rights Framework (the Framework).
 2. Call on Canada to work with First Nations before adopting and implementing any legislative or administrative measures that may affect First Nations in order to obtain their free, prior and informed consent.
 3. Call on Canada to:
 - a. Rename the Framework to "Protection and Affirmation of Rights and Title Framework".
 - b. Ensure that all phases of its process, in regard to its Framework, are guided by the standards set out in the United Nations Declaration on the Right of Indigenous Peoples (UN Declaration), the American Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and the United Nations Study on Treaties, Agreements and Other Constructive Arrangements between States and Indigenous Populations.
 - c. Work closely with First Nations to ensure that the engagement materials are informed, sufficient, accessible and transparent.
 - d. Provide the necessary non-repayable financial contributions directly to First Nations as the rights holders, to support their ability and capacity to lead efforts to meaningfully and directly engage the federal government on the Framework, related activities and initiatives, including federal legislation.
 4. Call on Canada to honour its constitutional obligations and commitments to the full implementation and affirmation of inherent rights, Treaty Rights and title.
 5. Call on Canada to completely repudiate and abandon the inherent rights policy and any related operating practices.
 6. Call on the Governor General to acknowledge its role as the sole representative of the Crown and to participate in First Nations-led agendas when requested by First Nations.

7. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to take appropriate measures to ensure that its organization, executive and administration are in compliance with the UN Declaration in its relationships with First Nations, all levels of governments and international entities.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN convened a national policy forum on September 11 and 12, 2018 in direct response to this resolution and the related Resolution 39/2018, First Nations Determination of the Path to Decolonization. The AFN called on Canada to commit to a First Nations-led process, pursuant to these resolutions. The matter was raised for dialogue further direction from the Chiefs-in-Assembly.
 - Subsequent resolutions have been passed that have provided recent mandates in this regard. Please refer to Resolutions 39/2018, First Nations Determination of the Path to Decolonization and 67/2018, Rejection of the Recognition and Implementation of Indigenous Rights Framework and Associated Processes.

10/2018 Resources for Engagement on Distinct First Nations Accessibility Legislation

Mover: Chief Byron Louis, Okanagan Indian Band, BC

Seconded: Chief Randall Phillips, Oneida Nation of the Thames, ON

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to work with Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC) towards legislation supporting First Nations persons with disabilities, including meaningful resources for regional capacity building.
 2. Direct the AFN to secure appropriate resources from the federal government for the development of a First Nations Regional Advisory Disability Task Force, and to explore initiatives, such as a Disabilities centre of excellence, to support promising practices, evidence-based resources in meeting the unique needs of First Nations persons with disabilities, service users, and their families.
 3. Direct the AFN to support American Sign Language (ASL) as part of the communications theme in this legislative work, and call on ESDC to provide resources to support First Nations sign languages and include ASL as part of its future conferences and/or assemblies.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN has held bi-monthly meetings with federal counterparts at Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC) and continues to promote this resolution. A proposal has been submitted to the federal government for capacity and resources to engage discussions on First Nations needs for accessibility, policy linkages with several federal departments and those responsible for the Federal Accessibility Legislation (for disabilities).
- The AFN's advocacy efforts have resulted in early work to bridge a dialogue with Indigenous Services Canada, Health Canada, Public Health Agency of Canada, and ESDC, among others, on the issue of a continuum of (disability) care. Officials are considering options such as a framework and, potentially, to develop a task force .
- The AFN provided a written submission on Bill C-81, the Accessible Canada Act, to the Senate Standing Committee on Social Affairs, Science and Technology on April 30, 2019, to raise concerns with this Bill, and to communicate the need for resources for regional capacity building for First Nations persons with disabilities and First Nations governments.
- Bill C-81, the Accessible Canada Act received royal assent on June 21, 2019.. The Bill recognizes various forms of sign languages, including Indigenous sign language for inclusion among government services.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Declare that, in order to succeed in achieving an effective and comprehensive Rights Framework, the federal government must formally and without delay, implement the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UN Declaration) within the context of the Canadian Constitution in co-development with First Nations across Canada.
 2. Reaffirm that the UN Declaration is the legal standard and, therefore, is considered to be an international Treaty equal to other existing United Nations Treaties.
 3. Invoke our legitimate right to self-determination as stipulated in the UN Declaration as a legally binding and non-aspirational legal standard which is, therefore, to be considered an international Treaty equal to other existing United Nations Treaties.
 4. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to take appropriate measures to ensure that its organization, executive and administration be in compliance with the rights affirmed in the UN Declaration in its relationships with First Nations, all levels of governments and international entities.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- AFN advocated for Bill C- 262, An Act to implement the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples to become law. Bill C-262 is one method that would have created a domestic legal requirement to implement the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (the UN Declaration).
 - The National Chief continues to call upon Canada to honour the Crown's obligations under Treaties, the Constitution and the international human rights law to fully and meaningfully meet its obligations to First Nations.
 - The Chiefs Committee on AFN Charter renewal reported at the AGA 2017 that the Secretariat is seeking resources to fund future work including engagement with First Nations. Further implementation of this resolution will take place over the next year.
 - AFN will provide a dialogue session at the upcoming Annual General Assembly in Fredericton, New Brunswick in relation to a National Action Plan on implementing the UN Declaration.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to draft a letter to the Minister of Heritage in support of the Indigenous Heritage Circle as an independent, inclusive, national organization devoted to sharing information related to Indigenous cultural places, landscapes, narratives, languages, practices, legal traditions, protocols and collections and strengthening the capacity of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples to advocate on heritage issues of interest to them.
 2. Direct the AFN to urge the Government of Canada, including Parks Canada, to fulfill Call to Action #79 in developing a reconciliation framework for Canadian heritage and commemoration.
 3. Direct the Assembly of First Nations to ensure that any future national strategy on the repatriation of Indigenous cultural property is created with the full participation of First Nations and upholds the standards set out in the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The National Chief sent a letter to the Minister of Canadian Heritage, Pablo Rodriguez on November 27, 2018. The letter requests resources and tools to support the repatriation of objects from repositories in other countries and asserts that Bill C-391, An Act respecting a national strategy for the repatriation of Indigenous human remains and cultural property, must uphold the standards set out in the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UN Declaration) and the AFN-Canada Museums Association Task Force.
 - On October 2, 2018, Regional Chief Morley Googoo spoke in the House of Commons Standing Committee on Canadian Heritage on Bill C-391, An Act respecting a national strategy for the repatriation of Aboriginal cultural property
 - In May 2019, the AFN provided Parks Canada feedback on its draft Framework for History and Commemoration, informed by Parks Canada's Report on Gatherings on Indigenous Cultural Heritage, developed with Indigenous Heritage Circle.

17/2018 Implementation of the Federal Commitment to Forgiveness of Treaty Negotiation Loans

Mover: Chief Ann Louie, Williams Lake Indian Band, BC

Seconder: Chief Jacqueline Thomas, Saik'uz First Nation, BC

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to urge the federal government to implement its commitment to the full forgiveness of First Nations' treaty negotiation loans in accordance with the following principles:
 - a. the full amount of each First Nation's treaty negotiation loan must be forgiven or, in the case of loans that have been repaid, reimbursed;
 - b. Canada's commitment to forgive or, in the case of loans that have been repaid, reimburse treaty negotiation loans must be set out in a legally binding agreement that would provide certainty to First Nations;
 - c. the forgiveness and reimbursement of treaty negotiation loans must be implemented over the shortest possible time period; and,
 - d. to address concerns of First Nations that are about to commence or are engaged in a ratification process, the loan forgiveness commitment must include a guarantee that any loans that are still outstanding will be forgiven in full on the Effective Date.
 2. Direct the AFN to work with the federal government to ensure that the federal commitment to negotiation loan forgiveness and reimbursement is fully implemented in the 2018/2019 fiscal year.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- Ongoing advocacy at federal, provincial and regional levels continues for the forgiveness of Treaty negotiation loans, including at the AFN – Canada Joint Technical Working Group on Specific Claims.
 - The 2019 Federal Budget announced $1.4 billion for the full forgiveness and reimbursement of all Treaty negotiation loans related to Modern Treaties. There remains an outstanding need to forgive loans related to specific claims.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to advocate for disabilities as a central issue in all policy and program sectors, disaggregated indicators and statistics, United Nations human rights machinery, and work of the United Nations, as integral to restoring the human rights of First Nations persons with disabilities.
 2. Direct the AFN to work with Employment Social Development Canada (ESDC) and other federal government departments to ensure an intersectional lens/ disability analysis is applied to program and policy areas and all new initiatives and budgets to ensure persons with disabilities are not an afterthought, and nobody is left behind.
 3. Direct the AFN to work with ESDC and other federal government departments to ensure Federal Budget 2019 includes meaningful regionalized funding for regional capacity building, and the establishment of a national Task Force on Disabilities to build a national framework and a centre of excellence to better address the human rights of First Nations persons with disabilities who are the marginalized of the marginalized.
 4. Call on ESDC to ensure voices of persons with disabilities are not further excluded and increased focus on disabilities in international processes of Indigenous and humanitarian value, including the climate change agenda, and implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals.
 5. Direct the AFN to work with Indigenous Services Canada to ensure a disability analysis/ lens is applied to the Non-Insured Health Benefits Joint Review Process.
 6. Direct the AFN Chiefs Committee on Human Resources Development to provide updates on activities and report back to Chiefs-in-Assembly.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN continues to advocate and foster awareness of disability/ accessibility as a central human rights issue in many cross-cutting policy and program discussions. This has included discussions with Indigenous Services Canada, Health Canada's Non-Insured Health Benefits program, and Public Health Agency of Canada, and Employment and Social Development Canada, among others.
- On April 11, 2019, the AFN submitted key interventions to the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNSR) to leverage AFN's advocacy efforts aimed at centering the discussion on human rights on several major issues.

- In March 2019, the AFN has begun to work on developing a Social Innovation and Social Finance policy paper with linkages to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) Agenda 2030, specifically a SDGs core objective to “leave no one behind”. The SDGs serve as a useful instrument to consider how to track and measure the changes in socio-economic gaps experienced by First Nations persons with disabilities and First Nations governments.
- The AFN had proposed new investments in its Pre-budget Submission for the 2019 Federal Budget to enable regional capacity and a centre of excellence in the empowerment of First Nations persons with disabilities and First Nations governments; along with efforts to secure resources for the development of a continuum of (disability) care framework with several federal departments.

 - a. Respond to the impacts of inflation and population growth amongst First Nations.
 - b. Communicate regularly on the co-development and implementation of the new distinct First Nations labour market strategy.
2. Direct the CCHRD to call on the Minister of Employment, Workforce Development and Labour to:
 - a. Address the shortfall of Budget 2018 due to inflation and population growth.
 - b. Provide the necessary financial supports for the development of capacity.

3. Initiate a parallel process to for the full devolution of labour market authority and jurisdiction under the control of First Nations governments.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN has coordinated two national in-person Technical Working Group meetings in September 2018 and November 2018 to discuss templates and operational revisions to implement the First Nations Labour Market Strategy. In addition, the AFN coordinated teleconference calls in December 2018, January 2019 and February 2019 to facilitate questions and information flow for existing and new agreements.
- In May 2019, the AFN coordinated a meeting with the sub-technical working group to consider, develop and review a draft workplan with Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC) to support work directly related to the implementation of the distinct First Nations Labour Market Strategy. This workplan is evergreen and will focus on supports for new and existing agreement development, performance measurement objectives, and ongoing capacity enhancements and support for labour market information research and development.
- The AFN will continue to review the planning, concept and role of a Labour Market Council and Secretariat to support and advocate for the transition of authority to First Nations control for Labour Market programming.
- The AFN has indicated to federal counterparts that new investments in subsequent Federal Budget exercises are required to align future investments with the reality of inflation and population demands not met in Budget 2018.
- The AFN will maintain outreach with First Nations leadership, labour market partners, organizations, and agencies to engage their participation in readiness for full devolution of program authority under First Nations control. The AFN meets monthly with federal counterparts at ESDC.

30/2018 Realizing Benefits for First Nations in the Implementation of International Trade and Investment Agreements

Mover: Chief R. Donald Maracle, Mohawks of the Bay of Quinte First Nation, ON

Seconder: Chief Byron Louis, Okanagan Indian Band, BC

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to work with the Government of Canada to:
 - a. promote and lead trade missions for First Nation businesses in Europe and Asia to take advantage of the new markets for goods and services provided by the implementation of the Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement and the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for the Trans-Pacific Partnership;
 - b. create legislation and policies that requires the federal government to procure a percentage of their goods and services from First Nation businesses;
 - c. develop an incentive program for the private sector to encourage the partnership with First Nations businesses for government procurement contracts;
 - d. fund a First Nation centre of excellence for international trade and investment to develop First Nations' expertise in the promotion of trade and investment for First Nation business, specifically in the area of traditional knowledge and collective and individual Indigenous intellectual property. A First Nation Centre of Excellence would establish links to academia, develop best practices, and create a directory of inventory services related to trade, economic development, and foreign investment specific to First Nations business with an aim to promote export readiness;
 - e. develop a certification program, led by First Nations, to certify First Nation businesses to ensure that the economic opportunities are flowing to First Nations; and,
 - f. establish a First Nations International Trade and Investment Implementation Committee. Consistent with AFN Resolution 104/2017, Establishing a First Nations Advisory Committee under Section 6 of the Department of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development Act, this Committee would be established and funded under Section 6 of the Department of Foreign Affairs' Trade and Development Act to provide implementation advice to the Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Minister of International Trade on all matters of interest and importance to First Nations in the implementation of international trade and investment agreements and the relationship between traditional knowledge, Indigenous intellectual property and international trade.
 2. Direct the AFN to work with provinces and territories to create procurement legislation and policies that will ensure that the set asides for Indigenous peoples in international trade agreements, and the Canadian Free Trade Agreement, are implemented in a manner that allows First Nations businesses to capitalize on these preferences and benefits.

3. Direct the AFN to establish relationships globally with economic organizations mandated by Indigenous peoples in order to promote and support new connections for inter-nation Indigenous trade and investment.
4. Direct the AFN to advocate and promote at international bodies the importance of increasing the participation of Indigenous peoples in international trade. Key international organizations include: the United Nations Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues (UNPFII), the Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (EMRIP), the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) and the Organization of American States (OAS).
5. Encourage the AFN to support academic research and writing on international Indigenous trade and investment as well as promote workshops and conferences on the theme of Indigenous peoples and International trade and investment.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- National Chief Perry Bellegarde is a member of the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) Advisory Council and advocated consistently for the protection of the Aboriginal and Treaty rights. At key points throughout the negotiations, the NAFTA Advisory Council provided advice to federal Foreign Affairs Minister Chrystia Freeland, who led Canada's negotiation team.
- The AFN has monitored the negotiations for what was formerly the NAFTA, now the Canada-United States-Mexico Agreement (CUSMA). The agreement in principle was finalized on September 30, 2018.
- On May 29, 2019, Bill C-100, An Act to implement the Agreement between Canada, the United States of America and the United Mexican States was introduced in Parliament.
- On Thursday, May 30, 2019, National Chief Perry Bellegarde attended a meeting between Prime Minister Trudeau, US Vice President Pence, and the NAFTA Advisory Council to discuss the CUSMA.
- The National Chief appeared before the House of Commons' Standing Committee on International Trade on June 18, 2019 in view of its study of Bill C-100. The National Chief advocated, among several matters, for a non-derogation clause in the Bill, procurement opportunities for First Nations, and continued work on chapters on Trade and Indigenous Peoples as efforts will need to continue to implement and build on this work.
- The CUSMA has played a key role in setting the groundwork for other trade agreements to include content supporting Indigenous Peoples rights and trade involvement.
- Communications and updates have been provided to the AFN Executive Committee and First Nations leadership and the AFN Chiefs Committee on Economic Development, regarding First Nations involvement in Free Trade Agreements.

- The National Chief raised the need for First Nations inclusion in trade agreements during the December 2019 First Ministers Meeting.
- Although a dedicated chapter on Trade and Indigenous peoples was not included in the USMCA, a federal working group, which included First Nations, have had input on the outcomes.
- The AFN continues to build upon the work of an Indigenous Peoples Chapter by advocating for the addition of text and provisions that will respect First Nations rights and provide opportunities for First Nations businesses in all trade agreements; continue to advocate for environmental protection, gender equality, and other measures to be consistent with the rights of Indigenous peoples under the Constitution and international law.
- The AFN, with legal support, has drafted key issues related to Canada's Foreign Investment Promotion and Protection Agreements (FIPAs) including the need for engagement with First Nations, the suspension of Investor-State Dispute Settlement (ISDS) provisions, the protection of Treaty and inherent rights in all international trade and investment agreements entered into by Canada, corporate social responsibility and free prior and informed consent.
- The AFN proposed new investments in the last Federal Budget to support First Nations trade programs, services and investments.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) Chiefs Committee on Economic Development (CCED) to work toward a national, political and economic paper that will outline policy and program redesign in support of First Nations involvement in the economy, including significant new investments towards economic program support and capacity development.
 2. Direct the AFN CCED to consider a national paper that will coordinate a process with and among key national technical organizations to avoid overlap and be aligned to First Nations leadership priorities.
 3. Call upon the federal government to provide resources for this work to take place.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The National Aboriginal Capital Corporations Association is working with the AFN on a process where key national technical organizations would coordinate activities and key priorities. An initial meeting was held in April 2019.
 - The AFN has informed federal officials of this Resolution and will continue discussions on further action.
 - In the last quarter of the fiscal year, AFN received funding to consider the gaps and capacity needs to better support First Nations economic program priorities. AFN has sought the Chiefs Committee on Economic Development advice on timeliness for new investments, activity in the current fiscal year, and an economic paper on support for First Nations economic programs nationally and capacity development.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to encourage First Nations across Canada to join together to seek redress from the North West Company for its historical economic exploitation and abuse of First Nations peoples.
 2. Direct the AFN to request an apology from the North West Company and encourage the North West Company to pay reparations for the economic suffering they have inflicted on Indigenous peoples in Canada.
 3. Call upon the federal government to address the imbalance in access to goods and services that First Nations continue to suffer, such efforts include, but not be limited to:
 - a. Studying and reporting on the process by which the North West Company was able to occupy and obtain title to lands within First Nations territory and to thereby establish an economic monopoly over the provision of goods and services to First Nations, with particular attention to the failures to consult and obtain the free, prior and informed consent from First Nations.
 - b. Studying and reporting on the current ways and means that goods and services are supplied to First Nations, with particular attention to the communities that are most remote.
 - c. Proposing solutions and taking appropriate measures to improve supply and bring prices down to levels comparable to those enjoyed by all Canadians, wherever they are located.
 - d. Establishing an on-going system for monitoring the economic performance of third parties doing business on and with First Nations, including reporting requirements, audits and other regulations designed to ensure fair and balanced business practices, pricing and non-discriminatory service.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- In July 2018, the AFN discussed with the North West Company regarding concerns raised in this resolution. The North West Company expressed their interest to share information and an openness to meet with First Nations.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to advocate to the federal government to deem First Nations policing as an essential service and to provide adequate funding and support similar to other police forces in the country.
2. Call upon the AFN to advocate to the federal government to support the establishment of additional Tribal Police Services on First Nations in Canada, with commensurate funding.
3. Call upon the AFN to advocate to the provincial governments to lift the moratorium on new self-administered police services in Canada.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- On February 27 and 28, 2018, the AFN attended the First Nations Policing Program Stakeholder Panel held in Kelowna, British Columbia. The purpose of this meeting was for officials’-level discussion, information-sharing, and the development of options regarding the First Nations Policing Program (FNPP).
- On March 26-27, 2018, the AFN hosted a meeting in Wendake, Quebec on First Nations policing and public safety. The purpose of this meeting was to hear from First Nation police agencies to identify systemic inequalities, gaps in services and other issues that are of concern to the agencies. Further, this meeting facilitated discussions on how the AFN can advocate at the national level on the community safety priorities.
- Since these two meetings, the Legal Affairs & Justice Sector has been working on the following deliverables with Public Safety Canada pertaining to First Nations policing:
- A work plan is being developed to advance policing and safety priorities, and any other agreeable initiatives. As part of this plan, a research report that scopes and defines First Nations policing priorities through a gap analysis will be completed by March 2019. This report is to support First Nations priorities as they pertain to policing and community safety. Further, it will enhance our advocacy to the federal government to deem First Nations policing as an essential service and for adequate funding to First Nations police services supported by research.

53/2018 Federal Legislation on First Nation Child Welfare Jurisdiction

Mover: Chief Daryl Watson, Mistawasis Cree Nation Treaty Six, SK

Seconded: Chief Walter Spence, Fox Lake Cree Nation, MB

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Support the option for legislation prepared by the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) Child Welfare Legislative Working Group (LWG) based on inherent rights, Treaties, self-determination and international human rights standards, and confirm this is the best option Chiefs support for further co-development. The legislation must affirm inherent and Treaty rights and must also uphold the standards in the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and other international human rights instruments.
 2. Call upon the Government of Canada to table the draft legislation before the House of Commons rises on or before December 14, 2018, and include First Nations throughout the legislative process.
 3. Call upon all Members of Parliament and Senators to ensure the legislation receives royal assent in advance of October 2019.
 4. Call upon Canada to ensure the legislation reflects the position that First Nations laws take precedence over the laws of a province or territory, or occupy other forms of jurisdiction, or reflects the choice of shared jurisdiction, based on the decision of that First Nation government exercising its self-determination authority.
 5. Call upon Canada to ensure a funding principle is included in any co-developed legislation based on substantive equality for First Nation children, children with disabilities, youth and families and provides for predictable, stable, sustainable and needs-based funding to secure long-term positive outcomes for First Nations, children, families and communities.
 6. Demand, for greater clarity, adequate funding must be provided for the development, capacity-building, planning, operations, capital, transition and implementation of the co-developed legislation. Funding for actual costs of prevention, data management, legal costs and other areas covered as a result of the legal orders of the Canadian Human Rights Tribunal must be extended to all First Nations governments and peoples.
 7. Request the AFN LWG develop materials for First Nations Chiefs and governments for a transition plan specific to First Nations based on clear distinctions between the First Nations, Métis and Inuit so that the distinct political and legal rights, cultures, languages, practices and laws of the First Nations peoples are reflected appropriately in the wording and implementation of legislation.
 8. Support the development of political accords to guide transition and implementation of legislation co-developed with First Nations and Canada.

9. Reject any legislative proposal or drafting involving delegation models of authority from federal, provincial or territorial governments or any policy or approach based on denial or rights or requirements of extinguishment or limitation of the rights of the First Nations and Treaty First Nations or any other colonial imposed requirements inconsistent with self-determination.
10. Direct the AFN LWG ensure that co-developed legislation include a non-derogation clause to protect the inherent Aboriginal and Treaty rights of First Nations and the other rights and freedoms of First Nations from being abrogated diminished in any way.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- On February 28, 2019, Bill C-92, An Act Respecting First Nations, Inuit and Métis children, youth and families (Bill C-92) was tabled for first reading in the House of Commons.
- Bill C-92 affirms First Nations jurisdiction and enables First Nations to enact their own legislation over child and family services.
- Several members of the LWG have advocated for the passing of Bill C-92 at the House of Commons Standing Committee on Indigenous and Northern Affairs, and the Standing Senate Committee on Aboriginal Peoples.
- On June 21, 2019, Bill C-92 achieved royal assent.

54/2018 Support for Manitoba First Nations – Specific Federal Legislation Bringing Our Children Home Act

Mover: Chief Karen Batson, Pine Creek First Nation, MB

Seconder: Chief Vera Mitchell, Poplar River First Nation, MB

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Fully support the proposed draft Manitoba specific federal legislation, Bringing our Children Home Act, as created by Manitoba First Nations and endorsed by the Assembly of Manitoba Chiefs (AMC), and support that Canada work together with Manitoba First Nations to jointly draft a mutually agreeable draft Bill for Canada to introduce in the House of Commons in the very near future, after the federal enabling legislation has been passed.
 2. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) National Chief to inform Canada of the Chiefs-in-Assembly's support for the Bringing our Children Home Act and remind Canada that the Crown cannot implement child welfare reform without the free, prior and informed consent of Manitoba First Nations rights-holders.
 3. Acknowledge that Manitoba First Nations have the authority to exercise their self-determination and jurisdiction over child welfare and may develop, and draft with the federal government, legislation that is specific to Manitoba First Nations.
 4. Further acknowledge that the AFN and the National Advisory Committee (NAC) on First Nations Child and Family Services Program Reform working with any other Indigenous organizations, committees or groups, support and cannot replace Manitoba First Nations in their approach to develop and pursue federal legislation that will lead to federal arrangements directly with Manitoba First Nations to support their own laws on children and families.
 5. Direct the AFN, the Child Welfare Legislation Working Group, and the committee working on federal child welfare legislation for First Nations, Métis and Inuit to respect Manitoba First Nations and the Bringing Our Children Home Act, and advocate that the federal government's legislation not conflict with Manitoba's legislation.
 6. Direct the AFN to inform the Government of Canada that the Bringing Our Children Home Act, developed by Manitoba First Nations as supported by Indigenous Services Canada, be jointly presented by the AMC Grand Chief to Cabinet.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- National Chief drafted a letter to Indigenous Service Canada Minister Seamus O'Regan, supporting Manitoba specific federal child welfare legislation. The letter will be sent after Bill C-92 has been passed per the resolution.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Call on Canada to work directly with First Nations to determine the needs for an on-reserve disabilities program.
2. Call on Canada to provide long-term and sustainable funding for an on-reserve disabilities program for First Nations.
3. Call on Canada to encourage provincial/territorial governments to invest in on-reserve disabilities programs for First Nations.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN Economic, Health, and Social Sectors continue to meet with officials from Indigenous Services Canada, Employment and Social Development Canada, Health Canada, Public Health Agency of Canada, among others to discuss resources for a First Nations disabilities program on-reserve and the development of a continuum of (disability) care framework.
- AFN's advocacy efforts continue to call for a redesign of the current government program-by-program approach to health and social structures/ services for First Nations of all ages.
- Initial considerations include the development of an analysis of the current landscape and government policy and programming over the past 15 years to help guide and determine the strategic development of flexible and equitable services and supports for First Nations.
- The AFN continues to advocate for long term and sustainable resources for a First Nations disabilities program on reserve that is driven by First Nations, for First Nations.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Call upon the federal government to partner with the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) and provide funds to allow the AFN to:
 - a. engage all First Nations in non-housing related infrastructure data gathering exercise to determine the non-housing related infrastructure gap.
 - b. explore the development of options for a mechanism(s) and a recommendation for direct federal government infrastructure funding exclusively to First Nations.
 2. Affirm that this resolution is without prejudice to the regional approaches that seek the transfer or drawing down of federal funding authorities for all First Nations infrastructure, not just housing-related infrastructure.
 3. Urge Canada to provide capital funds to construct long-term care facilities on First Nations.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- On March 18, 2019 a meeting between the National Chief and the Minister of Infrastructure and Communities took place in support of this resolution;
 - The Minister of Infrastructure and Communities sent a letter on April 10, 2019 to the National Chief. The letter explained how Infrastructure Canada has opened some of its programs to First Nations eligibility and provided summary information on each provincial and territorial 10-year (2018-2028) bilateral agreement on co-investment on the Federal Government's $180 billion national Infrastructure Plan.
 - On May 29, 2019 the Minister of Infrastructure and Communities met with the AFN Executive Committee discussed the creation of a joint committee to address AFN concerns regarding infrastructure.

Seconded: Chief Lance Haymond, Kebaowek First Nation, QC

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Approve the National Housing and Related Infrastructure Strategy that includes full funding of housing and infrastructure needs.
 2. Re-affirm the continuation of First Nations bilateral discussions with the federal government on housing and infrastructure policy reform regardless of the result of the Assembly of First Nations (AFN)-federal process to develop a National Housing and Related Infrastructure Strategy.
 3. Urge Canada to fulfill its fiduciary obligations to First Nations in housing and infrastructure, thereby ending the competition for insufficient resources between First Nations regarding these matters.
 4. Urge the federal government to immediately co-develop with the Chiefs Committee on Housing and Infrastructure and the AFN measures to remove barriers and otherwise improve the delivery of federal government housing and infrastructure programs and fiscal tools in the interim of the transition to First Nations care, control and management of First Nations housing and infrastructure.
 5. Ensure reform considers capital for child welfare.
 6. Call on Canada to be accountable for the mismanagement of housing through both Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada and the Canadian Housing and Mortgage Corporation processes(s). First Nations cannot inherit a broken and failed system as a result of a government housing policy and to substandard housing that has not improved the lives of our peoples.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- Regular meetings of the AFN-Canada Joint Working Group focused on developing an implementation plan for the 10-Year National First Nations Housing and Related Infrastructure Strategy that will underpin a future Memorandum to Cabinet.
- In February 2019 members of the Chiefs Committee on Housing and Infrastructure addressed interim improvements to Federal First Nations housing programs to the Federal team, developing a report on its "Deep Dive on First Nations Housing" as requested by the Prime Minister.

- From January to July 2019, AFN contracted all regions allowing them in turn to contract coordinators who oversaw each region’s housing data gathering.
 - Two First Nations professional organizations were contracted, one to train regional coordinators on managing the data recording and receiving the results while the other helped develop the methodology, the questionnaire and will analyse and store the data.
 - All First Nations were provided an opportunity to complete a questionnaire on current and projected housing and related infrastructure needs. The next step is analysis of the data and costing of the needs.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to work collaboratively with all concerned First Nations, regional representative bodies, non-government organizations, industry, federal, provincial and territorial governments to:
 - a. advocate for the development of funding programs for First Nations to develop, maintain, and strengthen their own conservation, surveillance, wildlife health, and human health programs
 - b. promote on-going research to better understand the risks associated with the potential transmission to humans from the consumption of Chronic Wasting Disease (CWD) infected meat
 2. Direct the AFN to work with the Government of Canada to develop the National Wildlife Disease Strategy.
 3. Direct the AFN Environment and Health Sectors to seek membership through the Advisory Committee on Climate Action and the Environment and the Chiefs Committee on Health to establish a First Nations CWD working group with the mandate to:
 - a. develop a position paper outlining First Nations' concerns and recommend responses or solutions to dealing with the spread of CWD and the potential impacts it will have
 - b. develop and advocate for First Nations-specific communication tools and workshops to raise awareness about CWD
 4. Direct the AFN to call on the relevant federal ministers and departments to provide the necessary funding to support the capacity of the AFN and First Nations to support a CWD working group and associated work products.
 5. Direct the AFN to investigate advocacy opportunities regarding international standard setting through the World Health Organization, the World Organization for Animal Health, and the Food and Agriculture Organization as well as the United Nations mechanisms relating to rights of Indigenous Peoples, including the United Nations Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, the United Nations Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and the Special Rapporteur on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.
 6. Call on federal, provincial and territorial governments to take immediate steps to close all game farms in Canada, as a means of preventing the spread of CWD.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

59/2018 First Nations Early Learning and Child Care Regional Funding Allocation Approach

Mover: Chief David Crate, Fisher River Cree Nation, MB

Seconded: Chief George Cote, Cote First Nation, SK

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Endorse the per capita funding approach, based on the Modified Berger Formula using the Indian Registration System population counts of on and off-reserve children aged 0-6, weighted for remoteness, as provisionally recommended by a majority of the National Expert Working Group on First Nations Early Learning and Child Care (ELCC) (Working Group) for the first two funding years.
 2. Direct the Working Group to continue to support the implementation of both the National Indigenous ELCC Framework and the First Nations ELCC Framework, subject to continued First Nations direction and leadership at local, regional and national levels, including through linkages to related initiatives in child welfare, Jordan's Principle, education, housing and infrastructure, languages, and governance.
 3. Direct the Working Group to strike a sub-working group, comprised of First Nations or of individuals identified by First Nations, with a clear mandate, terms of reference and timeline, to conduct the necessary research, engagement and consultation to develop an equitable and appropriate funding approach for First Nations ELCC investments that considers factors including those mentioned in this Resolution and in the First Nations

ELCC Framework (see Section F). This sub-working group shall commence work in December 2018 or January 2019, and shall have a recommendation to bring forward for approval of the Chiefs-in-Assembly in place for fiscal year 2019-20.

4. Call upon the federal government to adequately resource the development of a new funding approach for First Nations ELCC, and ensure that this is sourced separately from service delivery, partnerships and governance funding.
5. Direct the Assembly of First Nations to urge the federal government to bring forward the currently back-ended funding for First Nations ELCC and guarantee from the federal government to ensure that funding for 2018-2019 be carried over to the next fiscal year in order to allow regions to develop their own funding formula and their governance.
6. Call upon the federal, provincial and territorial governments to work with First Nations communities, service providers and regional First Nations ELCC coordination structures to build and further develop strong partnerships at the local and regional levels to support First Nations ELCC.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN sent a letter to Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC) Senior Assistant Deputy Ministers Catherine Adam and Stephanie Hebert on December 13, 2019, notifying them of the decision taken by Resolution on the funding formula for Early Learning and Childcare (ELCC) funds.
- The National Expert Working Group (NEWG) continues to support implementation of the First Nations ELCC Framework and National Indigenous ELCC Framework, including discussing linkages with areas including child welfare, Jordan's Principle, and education, to date. The National Expert Working Group met in-person on February 20-21, 2019, and by teleconference on January 11, February 5, and May 27, 2019.
- The NEWG has struck a sub-working group on funding formula development, which commenced work in January 2019. The AFN drafted Terms of Reference, which were reviewed and approved by the sub-working group.
- The AFN sent a letter to ESDC officials on March 18, 2019, and held a meeting with ESDC officials on April 9, 2019, to call for proper funding for the work of developing a new funding formula and national coordination, and for this funding to be sourced separately from the First Nations-allocated funding for service deliver, partnerships and governance.
- The AFN sent a letter to the Minister of Families, Children and Social Development on March 18, 2019, urging the back-ended funding to be brought forward, and to guarantee carry-over of funding from 2018-19.
- The AFN sent letters to federal, provincial and territorial Ministers responsible for ELCC, on April 12, 2019, calling for partnerships with First Nations regional ELCC coordination structures. To date, the AFN has held preliminary discussions with several provinces and territories, including Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Yukon, with participation of regional representatives.

- The AFN continues to advocate to the federal government to properly fund the work of developing a new funding formula, in addition to the ongoing implementation activities of the NEWG and sub-working group.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Support the work of the Joint Committee on Climate Action (JCCA) between First Nations and the Government of Canada, as well as support continued engagement by the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) in the JCCA to promote First Nations full and meaningful inclusion in the Pan-Canadian Framework on Clean Growth and Climate Change and other related priorities identified by First Nations based on their inherent rights, titles, Treaties, and other formal arrangements.
2. Call on the Prime Minister to implement the JCCA's recommendations in the areas of greenhouse pollution pricing, federal funding accessibility, and action on climate destruction in full collaboration with the AFN and all Nations.
3. Reiterate that the JCCA does not replace or alleviate the Crown of its duty to consult and accommodate First Nations and that additional efforts must be afforded in order to consult directly with rights holders on issues related to climate destruction, including mitigation and adaptation recommendations, in a manner that is respectful of their unique protocols, and processes.
4. Direct the AFN to call upon the Minister of Environment and Climate Change Canada to provide adequate financial capacity to support First Nations, regions, provincial and territorial organizations, and women, Elders, and youth to participate in these priorities and to maintain their important role as stewards of the environment in successfully managing Canada's climate action.

5. Direct the AFN to continue international work on climate destruction, including through the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- Since the December 2018 Special Chiefs Assembly, two sessions of the Joint Committee on Climate Action (JCCA) were held, in Edmonton (February 19-21, 2019) and Ottawa (June 5-7, 2019), to advance the discussion on climate change and affirmation of First Nations rights. The next meeting is planned for late September 2019 in Ottawa.
- The JCCA prepared and submitted a joint Annual Report for the Prime Minister and National Chief to review.. The report includes supporting the AFN Communications team to prepare a Press Release and letter to support a meeting between the two leaders.
- Ongoing conversations on how political engagement can be maintained are expected to ensure the continuation of the JCCA work.
- AFN is supporting the operationalization of the Local Communities and Indigenous Peoples Platform the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC), including in participating at the intersessional in June 2019.
- The AFN will support a larger delegation to participate in the UNFCCC’s COP 25 in Chile late in 2019 to advance the work on international climate policy, as well as broader international strategies.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to call on the federal, provincial and territorial governments to:
 - a. Respect, honour, and prioritize, the Indigenous Knowledge Systems (IKS) policies and protocols that First Nations and their Elders and Knowledge Keepers have in place or will put in place
 - b. Require the free, prior, and informed consent (FPIC) of First Nations, including Elders and Knowledge Keepers, regarding requests for the use of IKS
 - c. Provide support and capacity to First Nations to facilitate protection, practice, preservation, and promotion of IKS for future generations. As well as to First Nations to protect and, in some instances, rehabilitate, the lands, waters, air, and environment from which it has been provided
2. Direct the AFN to support and coordinate discussions with First Nations, Elders, Knowledge Keepers, regional organizations, and provincial/territorial organizations, for the development of an IKS Framework.
3. Direct the AFN to call on all responsible federal ministers to provide adequate funding directly to individual First Nations to support the protection, practice, preservation, and promotion of IKS for future generations.
4. Direct the AFN to call on Canada to ensure that legislation, policy, regulations, and programs fully respect the constitutional and other legal obligations of the Crown to First Nations, including the minimum standards set by the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- A contribution agreement was finalized and funds were disbursed to regions to support regional participation at a two day scoping meeting in March 2019.
- A Request-for-Proposal process for the National Coordinator was completed in May 2019 to support the facilitation of regional engagement sessions to prepare a version of the Indigenous Knowledge Systems Framework to discuss with the federal government for March 2020.
- AFN supported the participation of Knowledge Holders from several regions in the Indigenous Knowledge Workshop organized, chaired, and implemented by Environment and Climate Change Canada, on June 17-18, 2019, in Ottawa.
- Collaborative work is being proposed in this area considering the recent efforts to amend the Fisheries Act. The inclusion of the term traditional knowledge within the text of the Act will intensify the need for clear directions from First Nations and their fishers.
- The December 4, 2019 presentation to Canadian Council of Fisheries and Aquaculture Ministers by the AFN Fisheries Sector titled Implementing Indigenous Knowledge focused

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs-in-Assembly:

1. Demand that free, prior and informed consent is required to ensure that no storage or disposal of hazardous materials shall take place in First Nations lands and territories.
 2. Demand that the Nuclear Industry abandon its plans to operate Small Modular Nuclear Reactors in Ontario and elsewhere in Canada.
 3. Demand that the Government of Canada cease funding and support of the Small Modular Nuclear Reactors program.
 4. Direct that the National Chief and appropriate staff work to ensure that the Nuclear Industry and the Canadian Government abandon this program.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- AFN legal has reached out to the Nuclear Waste Management Organization (“NWMO”) to highlight and advocate for the requirement of free, prior and informed consent (“FPIC”) as it pertains to the disposal of hazardous materials on First Nations lands and territories. AFN Legal is currently working jointly with the NWMO on a reconciliation policy framework which will be referenced in all NWMO’s dealings with First Nations, the underlying purpose of which is to strengthen and highlight the fundamental importance of FPIC throughout the NWMO’s engagement with First Nations and any proposed disposal of nuclear waste associated with existing nuclear facilities and potentially from future small modular reactors.
- As both the Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission (CNSC) and Atomic Energy of Canada Limited fall under the purview of the Ministry of Natural Resources Canada, AFN Legal is seeking executive direction to proceed with a letter to the Minister of Natural Resources, Amarjeet Sohi, identifying First Nations concerns with Small modular nuclear reactors and demanding that the Government of Canada cease funding and abandon these programs in Ontario and across Canada. Said letter would include a demand that the Minister ensures that the FPIC is sought from all First Nations whose lands and territories could be impacted in any way by the Government of Canada’s efforts in the creation of small modular nuclear reactors and the associated nuclear waste, further to the principles outlined in the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

 4. Direct the AFN to call upon the Minister of Environment and Climate Change Canada (ECCC) and other relevant Ministers to allocate adequate resources to support First Nations nationally and regionally, as well as women, Elders, and youth to participate in these activities and to maintain their important role as stewards of the environment and the biodiversity found therein.
 5. Direct the AFN to facilitate a National dialogue on the North American Caribou emergency.
 6. Direct the AFN to convene a working group on caribou to report to the AFN Advisory Committee on Climate Action and the Environment to support AFN's efforts on caribou protection, conservation, management and recovery planning.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN Environment Sector has continued its membership and participation in the National Boreal Caribou Knowledge Consortium (NBCKC), and recently attended the inaugural meeting of its Indigenous Knowledge Circle, June 4 - 6, 2019.
- The Environment Sector is also moving forward with the development of a Caribou Working Group under the First Nations Advisory Committee on Species at Risk (FNACSAR).
- The scope of this working group will be determined at the next FNACSAR meeting.

- Additional efforts are also focusing on the potential development of a Local Biodiversity Outlooks (under the Convention on Biological Diversity), case study for the Porcupine Caribou Herd, among other areas.

67/2018 Rejection of the Recognition and Implementation of Indigenous Rights Framework and Associated Processes

Mover: Chief R. Donald Maracle, Mohawks of the Bay of Quinte First Nation, ON

Seconded: Chief Denise Stonefish, Delaware Nation (Moravian of the Thames) ON

1. Acknowledge that First Nations shall exclusively exercise their inherent rights without interference and are free to determine their own paths to self-determination.
2. Reject the following documents:
 - a. The Principles Respecting the Government of Canada's Relationship with Indigenous Peoples (Ten Principles)
 - b. The What We Heard So Far document
 - c. The Engagement Document
 - d. The Overview of a Recognition and Implementation of Indigenous Rights Framework (the Overview Document)
 - e. All other related structural changes to government as a result of this process.
3. Reject the proposed Recognition and Implementation of Indigenous Rights Framework (the Framework) and take all necessary steps to prevent the Framework from being unilaterally legislated.
4. Call on the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to support First Nations in developing their own Nation-building processes, including law-making, institution-building, and research of traditional governance systems in order for First Nations to begin developing standards of governance and law-making and to assert their inherent rights outside the purview of Canadian legislative control.

5. Affirm First Nations leaders, Elders, women, men, and youth have and continue to re-invigorate Indigenous languages, jurisdictions, and governance, in the spirit and intent of our Creator-granted laws upon the lands we have inherited from our ancestors and hold in trust for future generations.
6. Call upon the Prime Minister of Canada to convene a meeting for the purposes of addressing the mandate outlined on February 14, 2018 and to assess and recommence the Nation-to-Nation relationship.
7. Call on the AFN to hold a forum for the purpose of establishing First Nations principles to solidify our approach with the Crown.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- On May 1 and 2, 2019, the AFN convened a National Policy Forum on Four Policies and Nation Building in Treaty No. 6 territory in Edmonton, Alberta. The forum provided an opportunity for First Nations leadership and their technicians to discuss the barriers First Nations face in implementing Treaty rights, inherent rights, Title and jurisdiction and to discuss the tools that are needed to implement and enforce these pre-existing rights.
- The National Chief sent a letter on March 6, 2019 to the Minister of Crown-Indigenous Relations expressing concerns about Canada's process to review four key policies: the Specific Claims Policy, the Comprehensive Land Claims Policy and the Inherent Right Policy.
- An outcome report from the National Policy Forum will be provided to the delegation at the upcoming Annual General Assembly in Fredericton, New Brunswick.

69/2018 First Nations Full, Direct, and Unfettered Participation in Bill C-69 including Regulatory and Policy Co-Development

Mover: Chief Archie Waquan, Mikisew Cree First Nation, AB

Seconder: Chief Irvin Bull, Louis Bull First Nation, AB

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to urge the Senate to refer Bill C-69, An Act to enact the Impact Assessment Act and the Canadian Energy Regulator Act, to amend the Navigation Protection Act and to make consequential amendments to other Acts, to the Senate Committee on Energy, the Environment, and Natural Resources and ensure that rights holders participate in the hearing process in a timely manner that is respectful of their unique protocols, and processes, in order to complete the process before the next federal election.
 2. Support the Athabasca Region First Nations (Athabasca Chipewyan First Nation, Chipewyan Prairie Dene First Nation, Fort McKay First Nation, and Mikisew Cree First Nation) position on the need for the ratification of Bill C-69 and for improvements to the Project List under Bill C-69 to include in situ projects and projects that may impact Section 35 rights, reserves, water quality and quantity, migratory birds, species at risk, the watersheds of places like the Peace River, Slave River, Mackenzie River, and Great Slave Lake, and impacts to protected areas including, for example, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) World Heritage Sites, like the Wood Buffalo National Park.
 3. Call on Canada to engage in a focused dialogue with First Nations to substantively identify, recognize, and engage the protocols, elements, and processes to conduct joint regulatory and policy drafting.
 4. Direct the AFN to continue supporting and coordinating, where possible, the interventions and participation of First Nations, regional organizations, and provincial/territorial organizations in the joint drafting process. This could include creating regional-specific processes to address regions with specific concerns including support provisions as part of a Nation-to-Nation relationship.
 5. Call again on Canada to provide adequate funding directly to individual First Nations for their full, direct, and unfettered participation in the joint regulatory and policy drafting of Bill C-69.
 6. Call on Canada to ensure that regulatory and policy development fully respects the constitutional and other legal obligations of the Crown to First Nations and standards set by the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

7. Call on the AFN to continue conducting regional information-sessions to support First Nations, regional organizations, and provincial/territorial organizations in the process.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- A series of AFN First Nations Information Sessions occurred in early 2019 to discuss the legislation and upcoming regulatory and policy development. These took place on March 8, 2019 (Calgary) and March 27, 2019 (Halifax). Approximately 60 people were in attendance.
- The AFN provided testimony to the Senate Committee on Energy, the Environment, and Natural Resources on April 4, 2019. Regional Chief Adamek, supported by OKT Legal Counsel and AFN Staff spoke to First Nations considerations found in Bill C-69, An Act to enact the Impact Assessment Act and the Canadian Energy Regulator Act, to amend the Navigation Protection Act and to make consequential amendments to other Acts.
- A submission to the Senate Committee on Energy, the Environment, and Natural Resources (ENEV) was also submitted.
- There have been ongoing discussions with the Minister of Environment’s office to advocate for First Nations’ involvement in the implementation of Bill C-69. Separate policy and regulatory discussions, such as the Major Projects List and Indigenous Knowledge policies, have been ongoing.

 2. Call on the Minister of Indigenous Services Canada and FNIHB to initiate a conversation with the AFN and First Nations on a pathway moving forward for health transformation, including a transformative approach to NIHB.
 3. Call for a formalized process that is jointly determined by FNIHB, the AFN and First Nations in the spring of 2019 with a terms of reference that clearly states the purpose of the group, and its roles and responsibilities as part of a long-term approach beyond the joint review process, including considerations for supporting health transformation and the transformation of NIHB.
 4. Call on the Minister of Indigenous Services Canada to commit resources to the AFN and First Nations to support the capacity required to ensure ongoing work related to NIHB is adequately resourced and to provide First Nations with the ability to seek independent advice and content expertise as required.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The Joint Review Steering Committee, comprised of AFN and First Nations Inuit Health Benefits representatives, met from March 26-28, 2019. Day one of the meeting was with the First Nations Technical Committee. A draft Terms of Reference was tabled to discuss the long-term approach beyond the joint review process.
- The initial concept was to develop an advisory committee that would call upon First Nations experts in a variety of fields. These experts would utilize their knowledge and expertise to assist in the development of recommendations and improvements to the benefit areas.
- Further discussion with the Chiefs Committee on Health (CCOH) and the National First Nations Health Technicians Network (NFNHTN) is required in order to define the long-term approach for this work.

- Following these consultations, a formalized process will be jointly determined by First Nations, the AFN and FNIHB. Supporting health transformation and the transformation of NIHB will also need to be taken into consideration.

Seconded: Jennifer Cox, Proxy, Paq'tnkek First Nation, NS

1. Call on Canada to ensure that any financial compensation or award owed to the First Nations children and youth in care, or other victims of discrimination, should be the maximum allowable under the Canadian Human Rights Act, based on the fact that the discrimination was willful and reckless, causing ongoing trauma and harm to children and youth, and resulted in a humanitarian crisis.
 2. Call on Canada to ensure that financial compensation or awards also be provided to each sibling, parent or grandparent of a child or youth brought into care as a result of neglect or medical placements resulting from Canada's discriminatory policies, and such compensation should be the maximum allowable under the Canadian Human Rights Act.

3. Demand that Canada immediately inform the Human Rights Tribunal that the victims of discrimination—the First Nations children and youth in care between February 2006-2019 (or the date when the Tribunal finds there has been compliance with the human rights order)—are entitled to be considered for compensation up to the maximum amount available by law.
4. Demand that Canada accept that no further evidence from the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) or the First Nations Child and Family Caring Society of Canada (Caring Society) is required to support the maximum financial award for compensation to the victims of discrimination.
5. Call-upon the AFN National Chief and Executive Committee to work in collaboration with the Caring Society to ensure that the administration and disbursement of any payments to victims come from funds other than the awards to the victims so that no portion of the quantum awarded can be rolled back or claimed by lawyers or others administering or assisting victims.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN appeared before the Canadian Human Rights Tribunal (CHRT) on April 25-26, 2019. Consistent with the mandate of this resolution, the AFN sought compensation for the maximum amount of $40,000 for every child apprehended since 2006, as well as each parent and sibling. The Tribunal is expected to render a decision by October 31, 2019.

92/2018 Social Innovation/Social Finance Framework – Leaving No One Behind

Mover: Chief Bonnie Leonard, Proxy, Shuswap First Nation, BC

Secunder: Chief Harvey McLeod, Upper Nicola Indian Band, BC

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to develop and seek resources to fund a framework/policy paper on social innovation and social finance (SI/SF) to help identify First Nations finance gaps/priorities to inform Economic and Social Development Canada (ESDC) and next steps.
 2. Direct the federal government to work with the AFN to identify investments and carve out specific resources from the Social Finance Fund that will ensure sustained long-term benefits for First Nations-led initiatives on SI/SF.
 3. Urge ESDC to align with First Nations and the First Nations Information Governance Centre on Agenda 2030 in collaboration and transparency on data availability to better support, and measure progress and implementation on the Sustainable Development Goals and develop an Agenda 2030 disability strategy work plan across federal departments, as one example.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- In December 2018, Chiefs-in-Assembly called on Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC) to work with the AFN to identify investments and carve out specific resources from the Investment Readiness Stream specific to First Nations.
- In February 2019, the AFN secured funding from ESDC and is carrying out project activities on: the development of a literature review, an environmental scan, a cost benefits analysis, a legal review, coordination of a national roundtable on September 5, 2019, and opportunities to engage in varying policy tables to inform a social finance policy framework.
- On March 22, 2019, the Chiefs Committee on Human Resources Development met and was provided an update by AFN on this work. The AFN also requested the CCHRD provide guidance and recommendations on its current and future work related to this resolution. The AFN is also seeking recommendations from the Chiefs Committee on Economic Development given the close policy relationship.
- In March 2019, the AFN has also researched linkages to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and Agenda 2030, which speak to the need for economic growth, poverty reduction, affordable and clean energy, improvements to health, and more. The SDGs objective to “leave no one behind” helped to inform AFN’s work on social innovation/social finance.

93/2018 Federal Government Procurement Programs for First Nations

Mover: Chief Terrence Lee Spahan, Coldwater Indian Band, BC

Seconded: Chief Allan Polchies, Saint Mary's First Nation, NB

1. Support and advocate for stronger and targeted procurement strategies that result in federal government contracts to First Nations across Canada.
 2. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to call upon the federal government, specifically Crown-Indigenous Relations Canada, Indigenous Services Canada, Innovation, Science and Economic Development, Public Services and Procurement Canada and all appropriate government departments and associated organizations, to prioritize First Nations involvement and access to federal government procurement programs and projects and to create an Implementation Officer from within the Economic Sector of the AFN to track and create benchmarks, ensure results and progress, and to track transparency and accountability.
 3. Direct the AFN Chiefs' Committee on Economic Development to lead and work with Public Services Procurement Canada, and all appropriate federal government departments, in the development of First Nations federal government procurement programming and initiatives.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The AFN has been following procurement issues for several years and had prepared a draft paper in 2013-14 to communicate the issues First Nations businesses face when seeking access to procurement opportunities.
- In February 2019, the AFN worked with a contractor to review past AFN work on procurement and examine current obstacles.
- In March 2019, AFN coordinated a technical meeting of First Nations technicians, the National Aboriginal Capital Corporations Association, and the Council for the Advancement of Native Development Officers where the topic of procurement challenges was presented. AFN has requested additional feedback from these groups on procurement issues.
- In March and April 2019, the AFN drafted a paper on procurement recommendations.
- On June 19, 2019, the AFN Chiefs Committee on Economic Development (CCED) was presented with a draft paper for their consideration. The CCED recommended that the draft paper be finalized, following some revisions, and that it would be one of three evolving papers supported by the CCED.

94/2018 Reject Canada's Approach to Additions to Reserve Legislation

Mover: Chief Karen Batson, Pine Creek First Nation, MB

Seconder: Reynold Cook, Proxy, Sapotaweyak Cree Nation, MB

1. Reaffirm their support for Assembly of First Nations (AFN) Resolution 26/2012 Additions to Reserve Policy and Process Reform, which calls for:
 - a. A revised Addition to Reserve (ATR) process that would ensure that the implementation of all settlement agreements that include ATR commitments take precedence over other interests (e.g. municipal tax loss, etc.) and uphold the honour of the Crown and respect the constitutional status of First Nations Aboriginal and Treaty Rights.
 - b. The cooperative examination of legislation, in accordance with the standard of free, prior and informed consent, that would both expand the current legislative models available in Saskatchewan, Alberta and Manitoba to First Nations in other provinces and territories, and include other legislative measures that, in conjuncture with the revised ATR policy, make the process more efficient, effective and transparent.
 2. Call on the AFN to immediately begin undertaking a comprehensive analysis of the Budget Implementation Act, 2018, No. 2, focusing specifically on the Addition of Land and Reserves and Reserve Creation Act (the Act) to determine how the Act might impact First Nation inherent rights.
 3. Call on the AFN to immediately look for opportunities to intervene and comment on the Act, and where possible, outline First Nation concerns with the process through which the Act was developed and introduced.
 4. Call on Canada to refrain from characterizing the development of the Act as being done in consultation or collaboration with First Nations or the AFN, and for Canada to immediately undertake a detailed explanation of its legislative intent to be presented to the AFN Chiefs Committee on Lands, Territories and Resources for further discussion.
 5. Call on Canada to ensure that any future ATR legislation be subject to joint oversight implementation with First Nations.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- Canada has provided an overview of the legislative changes to the Chiefs Committee on Lands, Territories and Resources (CCoLTR).
- A joint AFN – Canada Additions to Reserve Advisory Committee has agreed to amend their existing Terms of Reference to ensure any further legislative changes that may affect the Additions-to-Reserve policy are reviewed by the AFN and the CCoLTR.

- The AFN has undertaken an analysis of the proposed changes in the Budget Implementation Act, 2018, No. 2 (The Act). The act primarily describes the delegation of responsibilities within the division of the departments (Indigenous Services Canada/Crown-Indigenous Relations and Northern Affairs), and nationalizes elements of the prairie Claims Settlement Acts, such as the ability to pre-designate lands, pre-permit and pre-license prior to conversion. The Act also provides instrumentation to expedite the bureaucratic approval process.
- AFN will have an approval process to review any further legislative changes on the ATR policy, via the ATR Advisory Committee.

Seconded: Ted Quwezance, Proxy, Keeseekoose First Nation, SK

1. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) to support the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) Call to Action #79 (iii) – a national heritage strategy to commemorate all Residential School sites.
 2. Direct the AFN to support the National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation (NCTR) bringing forward a survivor and community focused submission to the National Historic Sites and Monuments Board (NHSMB) calling for Canada to officially designate all Residential Schools sites as National Historical Sites.
 3. Direct the AFN to support the NCTR making a submission to the NHSMB based on the following principles:
 - a. communities be in control of any monuments erected on the sites of residential schools
 - b. communities have full agency over determining the scope, form and content of any monuments including having agency to decline a monument
 - c. communities be empowered to develop community narratives supportive of this work in accordance with TRC Call to Action #78, which calls upon the Government of Canada to commit to making a funding contribution of $10 million over 7 years to the NCTR, plus an additional amount to assist communities to research and produce histories of their own Residential Schools experience and their involvement in truth, healing, and reconciliation
 - d. there is an ongoing need to honour and acknowledge the children that never returned home from the schools.
 - e. there remains the continued existence of hundreds of unmarked burial sites associated with Residential School sites.
 4. Direct the AFN to call upon the National Historical Sites and Monuments Board to recognize Residential School sites as national historic sites.
 5. Direct the AFN to call upon the Government of Canada to encourage the NCTR to develop a fulsome response and plan for responding to TRC Calls to Action #72-76 and the realization of community narratives outlined in Call to Action #78.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- In May 2019, the AFN provided Parks Canada feedback on its draft Framework for History and Commemoration. The Framework is in part a response to Call to Action #79.
- Parks Canada has committed to the creation of an Indigenous Cultural Heritage Advisory Committee that will provide advice to Parks Canada to support reconciliation and the goals of the UN Declaration.
- The AFN had a meeting on February 19, 2019 via telephone with the National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation to further the AFN resolution.

1. Call on Health Canada to consult with First Nations on the proposed guideline and technical document for 1,4-Dioxane.
 2. Direct the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) National Chief to write a letter to the Federal-Provincial-Territorial Committee on Drinking Water Secretariat requesting:
 - a. Consultation with First Nations on the proposed 50 µg/L guideline and technical document prior to approving the guideline.
 - b. Apply the “precautionary principal” and not adopt a drinking water guideline above 3 µg/L.
 3. Direct the AFN National Chief to request Health Canada provide funding for First Nations to engage experts in the 1,4-Dioxane drinking water guideline initiative so that they may meaningfully provide input on this guideline.

IMPLEMENTATION ACTIVITIES:

- The Health Sector is providing support to Housing and Infrastructure Sector on this matter.
 - The Housing and Infrastructure Sector sent a letter to the Minister of Health in the winter of 2018.
 - National Chief sent letters to the Minister of Health and the Federal-Provincial-Territorial Committee on Drinking Water (FPT CDW) on April 16, 2019. The AFN is awaiting a response.
 - The AFN continues to review the process of ‘consultation’ on water quality guidance while advocating for First Nations participation (including resources) on that Committee.
 - Pending the responses from the Minister of Health and the FPT CDW, the AFN will propose a meeting between the Committee and First Nations leadership.
